Shine bright. Stay safe!

The holidays are a time for sparkle and cheer—but stay safe when decorating with lights using these tips:

Check before you connect

Discard any light strings and extension cords that have frayed wire, broken bulbs, or loose connections.

Choose LEDs for energy savings

LED holiday lights use up to 80% less energy and last much longer than traditional bulbs.

Use indoor and outdoor lights correctly

Keep connections off the ground and away from metal objects.

Don't overload outlets

Plug only one high-wattage decoration per outlet and use surge protectors where possible.

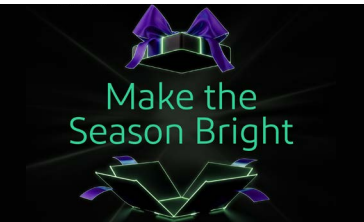

Turn off before bed or heading out

Use a timer or smart plug to automatically switch lights off, preventing overheating.

Keep cords clear

Avoid running cords under rugs, through doorways, or near water sources.

Your energy. Your choice.

PECO's Price to Compare (PTC) is the price you can use to evaluate offers from competitive energy suppliers. PECO's charges are passed directly to you at the exact cost we pay.

The PTC changes in July and December for Electric and quarterly for Gas as market prices change. You can find your PTC in the Message Center on your bill or at peco.com/choice.

We encourage you to monitor your energy usage as seasons change and take advantage of PECO's energy efficiency programs.
