Natural Gas Supply Rates Change For Delmarva Power Delaware Customers

The Delaware Public Service Commission approved an increase in gas supply rates for Delmarva Power Delaware residential customers. These changes will take effect on November 1, 2026, with proration.

How will this rate change affect me?

- Compared to rates in effect from November 1, 2025 to April 30, 2026, the typical residential space heating customer using an average of 78 ccf per month during the four winter months would see a monthly decrease of $2.56.
- The GCR is adjusted based on the forecasted wholesale cost of natural gas for the coming year.
