COMING OUT IN support of the Dalai Lama, Union Minister for Minority Affairs Kiren Rijiju said on Thursday that his reincarnation would have to be decided by the "established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama" and "nobody else has the right to decide".

In a video statement released on Wednesday, the Dalai Lama had said that the Gaden Phodrang Trust — a non-profit organisation that his office set up in 2011 – would have the "sole authority" to recognise his reincarnation.

China had immediately rejected the succession plan and reiterated that any future heir must receive its seal of approval. "The Dalai Lama's reincarnation must follow the principles of domestic recognition, the 'golden urn' process, and approval by the central government, in line with religious traditions and laws," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning had said.

In the first official comment on the issue, Rijiju said on Thursday: "Reincarnation has to be decided by the established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama. Nobody else has the right to decide on the next Dalai Lama. It is the most important defining institution for all the Tibetans and those who follow the Nalanda tradition of Buddhism".

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodgani, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai

Lama, who heads the trust.

AI terminates Delhi-Washington flight in Vienna

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 3

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned airline said on Thursday.

Consequently, its return flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative arrangements were made for the stranded passengers. Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid

Schengen visas were provided hotel accommodations in

Vienna until the next available

flight, as per the airline.

For passengers without Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

India very close to sealing Tata Motors eyes interim trade deal with US PLI sops worth

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

Broadly, India's interest in the agreement is to seek greater access to the US market for its traditional employment-intensive exports and emerging sectors like electronics, battery and solar power products manufacturing. The sectors are broadly covered by the productionlinked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The high labour-intensity sectors contributed over $14.3 billion to India's exports to the

US in FY25. These include garments ($5.33 billion), textiles and carpets ($2.38 billion), made-ups and worn clothing ($2.95 billion), leather ($795 million), footwear ($461 million), ceramics and stoneware ($1.55 billion), and wood and paper articles ($823 million).

Medium labour-intensity exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and parts ($2.59 billion), plastics and rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake.

In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

₹6,500 crore

A 45 KWH VARIANT of the Tata Nexon EV received the PLI certification on June 27. The Curvy and Harrier are also in line for the benefits.

The Harrier EV, the most expensive electric vehicle by Tata Motors under the PV category and also with the biggest drive range, is expected to receive certification this year. In the next few months, Tata Motors will add the Sierra EV, a five-seater electric SUV, to the line-up.

"In subsequent years, we should be able to take the PLI benefit to ₹2,000 crore in a year. So, ₹3,000-4,000 crore is what we should be able to do maximum over the next couple years for the PV segment," the executive added.

Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23, according to data shared by the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association (FADA).

we should come back to 50% share," Shailesh Chandra, MD, Tata Passenger Electric Mobility, said at the recently held annual Investor Day in Mumbai.

In the CV segment headed by executive director Girish Wagh, Tata Motors has three variants of the Ace mini truck and two variants each of Starbus and Ultra electric buses certified to receive benefits under the PLI scheme.

Due to the PLI incentives, the CV division saw a positive impact of 20 basis points on Tata Motors' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortisation (Ebitda) margins, while on the PV side, the margins impact stood at 70 basis points, the company said.

First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage – subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

In May, FE had reported that the government has considerably increased the target for PMIS to 700,000 internships in FY26. The increase has come against the backdrop of a series of tweaks being made in the scheme, including geotagging the opportunities so that the candidates can opt for companies and units closer to their domiciles.

Further, the top 500 partic-

have been providing extra incentives —over and above the government-mandated monthly stipend of ₹5,000 to attract a higher number of interns.

COMING OUT IN support of the Dalai Lama, Union Minister for Minority Affairs Kiren Rijiju said on Thursday that his reincarnation would have to be decided by the "established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama" and "nobody else has the right to decide".

In a video statement released on Wednesday, the Dalai Lama had said that the Gaden Phodrang Trust — a non-profit organisation that his office set up in 2011 – would have the "sole authority" to recognise his reincarnation.

China had immediately rejected the succession plan and reiterated that any future heir must receive its seal of approval. "The Dalai Lama's reincarnation must follow the principles of domestic recognition, the 'golden urn' process, and approval by the central government, in line with religious traditions and laws," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning had said.

In the first official comment on the issue, Rijiju said on Thursday: "Reincarnation has to be decided by the established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama. Nobody else has the right to decide on the next Dalai Lama. It is the most important defining institution for all the Tibetans and those who follow the Nalanda tradition of Buddhism".

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodganj, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, who heads the trust.

AI terminates Delhi-Washington flight in Vienna

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 3

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned

airline said on Thursday. Consequently, its return

flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative arrangements were made for the stranded passengers.

Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid Schengen visas were provided hotel accommodations in flight, as per the airline.

For passengers without Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

India very close to sealing Tata Motors eyes interim trade deal with US

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

Broadly, India's interest in Medium labour-intensity the agreement is to seek greater access to the US market for its traditional employment-intensive exports and emerging sectors like electronics, battery and solar power products manufacturing. The sectors are broadly covered by the productionlinked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The high labour-intensity sectors contributed over $14.3 billion to India's exports to the

US in FY25. These include garments ($5.33 billion), textiles and carpets ($2.38 billion), made-ups and worn clothing ($2.95 billion), leather ($795 million), footwear ($461 million), ceramics and stoneware ($1.55 billion), and wood and paper articles ($823 million).

exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and

parts ($2.59 billion), plastics and

rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake. In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

PLI sops worth ₹6,500 crore

A 45 KWH VARIANT of the Tata Nexon EV received the PLI certification on June 27. The Curvy and Harrier are also in line for the benefits.

The Harrier EV, the most expensive electric vehicle by Tata Motors under the PV category and also with the biggest drive range, is expected to receive certification this year. In the next few months, Tata Motors will add the Sierra EV, a five-seater electric SUV, to the line-up. "In subsequent years, we should be able to take the PLI benefit to ₹2,000 crore in a year. So, ₹3,000-4,000 crore is what we should be able to do maximum over the next couple years for the PV segment," the executive added. Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23, according to data shared by the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association (FADA).

"In the mid- to long term,

Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23

we should come back to 50% share," Shailesh Chandra, MD, Tata Passenger Electric Mobility, said at the recently held annual Investor Day in Mumbai.

In the CV segment headed by executive director Girish Wagh, Tata Motors has three variants of the Ace mini truck and two variants each of Starbus and Ultra electric buses certified to receive benefits under the PLI scheme. Due to the PLI incentives, the CV division saw a positive impact of 20 basis points on Tata Motors' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) margins, while on the PV side, the margins impact stood at 70 basis points, the company said.

In a video statement released on Wednesday, the Dalai Lama had said that the Gaden Phodrang Trust — a non-profit organisation that his office set up in 2011 would have the "sole authority" to recognise his reincarnation.

China had immediately rejected the succession plan and reiterated that any future heir must receive its seal of approval. "The Dalai Lama's reincarnation must follow the principles of domestic recognition, the 'golden urn' process, and approval by the central government, in line with religious traditions and laws," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning had said.

In the first official comment on the issue, Rijiju said on Thursday: "Reincarnation has to be decided by the established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama. Nobody else has the right to decide on the next Dalai Lama. It is the most important defining institution for all the Tibetans and those who follow the Nalanda tradition of Buddhism".

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodganj, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would

take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, who heads the trust.

AI terminates Delhi-Washington flight in Vienna

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 3

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned

airline said on Thursday. Consequently, its return

flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative arrangements were made for the stranded passengers.

Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid Schengen visas were provided

hotel accommodations in

flight, as per the airline.

For passengers without Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

India very close to sealing Tata Motors eyes interim trade deal with US PLI sops worth

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

Broadly, India's interest in the agreement is to seek greater access to the US market for its traditional employment-intensive exports and emerging sectors like electronics, battery and solar power products manufacturing. The sectors are broadly covered by the productionlinked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The high labour-intensity sectors contributed over $14.3 billion to India's exports to the

Medium labour-intensity exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and parts ($2.59 billion), plastics and

rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake.

In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

THE HIRING FOR the second round is currently underway, the source said. On Tuesday, the Union Cabinet approved ₹99,446-crore ELI scheme to support employment generation and improve employability across different sectors with a special focus on the manufacturing sector. First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

Govt mulls merger of jobs scheme with internship drive

inet approved ₹99,446-crore ELI scheme to support employment generation and improve employability across different sectors with a special focus on the manufacturing sector. First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

COMING OUT IN support of the Dalai Lama, Union Minister for Minority Affairs Kiren Rijiju said on Thursday that his reincarnation would have to be decided by the "established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama" and "nobody else has the right to decide".

In a video statement released on Wednesday, the Dalai Lama had said that the Gaden Phodrang Trust — a non-profit organisation that his office set up in 2011 would have the "sole authority" to recognise his reincarnation.

China had immediately rejected the succession plan and reiterated that any future heir must receive its seal of approval. "The Dalai Lama's reincarnation must follow the principles of domestic recognition, the 'golden urn' process, and approval by the central government, in line with religious traditions and laws," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning had said.

In the first official comment on the issue, Rijiju said on Thursday: "Reincarnation has to be decided by the established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama. Nobody else has the right to decide on the next Dalai Lama. It is the most important defining institution for all the Tibetans and those who follow the Nalanda tradition of Buddhism".

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodganj, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would

take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, who heads the trust.

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned

airline said on Thursday. Consequently, its return

flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative the stranded passengers.

arrangements were made for Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid Schengen visas were provided

hotel accommodations in

Vienna until the next available

flight, as per the airline. For passengers without

Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

India very close to sealing Tata Motors eyes interim trade deal with US PLI sops worth

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

Broadly, India's interest in the agreement is to seek greater access to the US market for its traditional employment-intensive exports and emerging sectors like electronics, battery and solar power products manufacturing. The sectors are broadly covered by the productionlinked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The high labour-intensity sectors contributed over $14.3 billion to India's exports to the

US in FY25. These include garments ($5.33 billion), textiles and carpets ($2.38 billion), made-ups and worn clothing ($2.95 billion), leather ($795 million), footwear ($461 million), ceramics and stoneware ($1.55 billion), and wood and paper articles ($823 million).

Medium labour-intensity exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and parts ($2.59 billion), plastics and

rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake.

In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

₹6,500 crore

A 45 KWH VARIANT of the Tata Nexon EV received the PLI certification on June 27. The Curvy and Harrier are also in line for the benefits.

The Harrier EV, the most expensive electric vehicle by Tata Motors under the PV category and also with the biggest drive range, is expected to receive certification this year. In the next few months, Tata Motors will add the Sierra EV, a five-seater electric SUV, to the line-up. "In subsequent years, we benefit to ₹2,000 crore in a year. So, ₹3,000-4,000 crore is what we should be able to do maximum over the next couple years for the PV segment," the executive added. Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more

should be able to take the PLI than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23, according to data shared by the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association (FADA).

"In the mid- to long term,

Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23

we should come back to 50% share," Shailesh Chandra, MD, Tata Passenger Electric Mobility, said at the recently held annual Investor Day in Mumbai.

In the CV segment headed by executive director Girish Wagh, Tata Motors has three variants of the Ace mini truck and two variants each of Starbus and Ultra electric buses certified to receive benefits under the PLI scheme.

Due to the PLI incentives, the CV division saw a positive impact of 20 basis points on Tata Motors' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) margins, while on the PV side, the margins impact stood at 70 basis points, the company said.

COMING OUT IN support of the Dalai Lama, Union Minister for Minority Affairs Kiren Rijiju said on Thursday that his reincarnation would have to be decided by the "established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama" and "nobody else has the right to decide".

In a video statement released on Wednesday, the Dalai Lama had said that the Gaden Phodrang Trust — a non-profit organisation that his office set up in 2011 would have the "sole authority" to recognise his reincarnation.

China had immediately rejected the succession plan and reiterated that any future heir must receive its seal of approval. "The Dalai Lama's reincarnation must follow the principles of domestic recognition, the 'golden urn' process, and approval by the central government, in line with religious traditions and laws," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning had said.

In the first official comment on the issue, Rijiju said on Thursday: "Reincarnation has to be decided by the established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama. Nobody else has the right to decide on the next Dalai Lama. It is the most important defining institution for all the Tibetans and those who follow the Nalanda tradition of Buddhism".

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodganj, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would

take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, who heads the trust.

AI terminates Delhi-Washington flight in Vienna

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 3

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned

airline said on Thursday. Consequently, its return

flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative arrangements were made for the stranded passengers.

Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid Schengen visas were provided

hotel accommodations in

Vienna until the next available

flight, as per the airline. For passengers without

Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

Broadly, India's interest in the agreement is to seek greater access to the US market for its traditional employment-intensive exports and emerging sectors like electronics, battery and solar power products manufacturing. The sectors are broadly covered by the productionlinked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The high labour-intensity sectors contributed over $14.3 billion to India's exports to the

US in FY25. These include garments ($5.33 billion), textiles and carpets ($2.38 billion), made-ups and worn clothing ($2.95 billion), leather ($795 million), footwear ($461 million), ceramics and stoneware ($1.55 billion), and wood and paper articles ($823 million).

Medium labour-intensity exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and parts ($2.59 billion), plastics and

rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake.

In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

Govt mulls merger of jobs scheme with internship drive

inet approved ₹99,446-crore ELI scheme to support employment generation and improve employability across different sectors with a special focus on the manufacturing sector. First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

In May, FE had reported that the government has considerably increased the target for PMIS to 700,000 internships in FY26. The increase has come against the backdrop of a series of tweaks being made in the scheme, including geotagging the opportunities so that the candidates can opt for companies and units closer to their domiciles.

Further, the top 500 partic-

have been providing extra incentives —over and above the government-mandated monthly stipend of ₹5,000 to attract a higher number of interns.

Govt mulls merger of jobs scheme with internship drive

THE HIRING FOR the second round is currently underway, the source said. On Tuesday, the Union Cabinet approved ₹99,446-crore ELI scheme to support employment generation and improve employability across different sectors with a special focus on the manufacturing sector. First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

■ The ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period

In May, FE had reported that the government has considerably increased the target for PMIS to 700,000 internships in FY26. The increase has come against the backdrop of a series of tweaks being made in the scheme, including geotagging the opportunities so that the candidates can opt for companies and units closer to their domiciles. Further, the top 500 partic-

COMING OUT IN support of the Dalai Lama, Union Minister for Minority Affairs Kiren Rijiju said on Thursday that his reincarnation would have to be decided by the "established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama" and "nobody else has the right to decide".

In a video statement released on Wednesday, the Dalai Lama had said that the Gaden Phodrang Trust — a non-profit organisation that his office set up in 2011 – would have the "sole authority" to recognise his reincarnation.

China had immediately rejected the succession plan and reiterated that any future heir must receive its seal of approval. "The Dalai Lama's reincarnation must follow the principles of domestic recognition, the 'golden urn' process, and approval by the central government, in line with religious traditions and laws," Chinese Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Mao Ning had said. In the first official comment on the issue, Rijiju said on Thursday: "Reincarnation has to be decided by the established conventions and the desire of the present Dalai Lama. Nobody else has the right to decide on the next Dalai Lama. It is the most important defining institution for all the Tibetans and those who follow the Nalanda tradition of Buddhism".

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodganj, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would

take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, who heads the trust.

AI terminates Delhi-Washington flight in Vienna

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 3

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned

airline said on Thursday. Consequently, its return

flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative arrangements were made for the stranded passengers.

Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid Schengen visas were provided hotel accommodations in flight, as per the airline.

For passengers without Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

US in FY25. These include garments ($5.33 billion), textiles and carpets ($2.38 billion), made-ups and worn clothing ($2.95 billion), leather ($795 million), footwear ($461 million), ceramics and stoneware ($1.55 billion), and wood and paper articles ($823 million).

exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and

rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake.

In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

₹6,500 crore

A 45 KWH VARIANT of the Tata Nexon EV received the PLI certification on June 27. The Curvy and Harrier are also in line for the benefits.

The Harrier EV, the most expensive electric vehicle by Tata Motors under the PV category and also with the biggest drive range, is expected to receive certification this year. In the next few months, Tata Motors will add the Sierra EV, a five-seater electric SUV, to the line-up. "In subsequent years, we should be able to take the PLI benefit to ₹2,000 crore in a year. So, ₹3,000-4,000 crore is what we should be able to do maximum over the next couple years for the PV segment," the executive added. Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23, according to data shared by the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association (FADA).

"In the mid- to long term,

Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23

we should come back to 50% share," Shailesh Chandra, MD, Tata Passenger Electric Mobility, said at the recently held annual Investor Day in Mumbai.

In the CV segment headed by executive director Girish Wagh, Tata Motors has three variants of the Ace mini truck and two variants each of Starbus and Ultra electric buses certified to receive benefits under the PLI scheme. Due to the PLI incentives, the CV division saw a positive impact of 20 basis points on Tata Motors' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) margins, while on the PV side, the margins impact stood at 70 basis points, the company said.

league Rajiv Ranjan Singh are scheduled to attend the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday celebrations in McLeodganj, Himachal Pradesh, on Sunday. Rijiju, who is a Buddhist, termed the Dalai Lama's birthday celebrations as a "purely religious event" not a "political issue".

On Wednesday, Tibetan spiritual leader the Dalai Lama had said that the institution of the Dalai Lama will continue and only the Gaden Phodrang Trust will have the authority to recognise his future reincarnation.

His video statement was released at the start of a threeday Tibetan religious conference in McLeodganj, days before his 90th birthday. "I hereby reiterate that the Gaden Phodrang Trust has the sole authority to recognise the future reincarnation. No one else has any such authority to interfere in this matter," the Dalai Lama said.

He said the Trust would

take a decision after consultations with Tibetan spiritual heads. Earlier in 2011, the Tibetan spiritual leader had said that he would "re-evaluate"whether the institution of the Dalai Lama should continue or not when he turned 90. He said the process through which the next Dalai Lama would be recognised has been clearly established in his 2011 statement.

Sikyong Penpa Tsering, the elected leader of the Central Tibetan Administration based in McLeodganj, India, reaffirmed the Dalai Lama's stance, stating that among the three institutions associated with the spiritual leader, only the Gaden Phodrang Trust would oversee the reincarnation process. The Gaden Phodrang Trust was registered in 2011 in Dharamshala with the aim of recognising the reincarnation of the Dalai Lama, who heads the trust.

AI terminates Delhi-Washington flight in Vienna

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 3

ANAIR INDIA flight from Delhi to Washington, which took off on July 2, could not complete its journey after it developed a technical glitch during a scheduled refuelling stopover in Vienna, the Tata Group-owned

airline said on Thursday. Consequently, its return

flight from Washington to Delhi, scheduled on July 2, was also cancelled.

Of late, frequent delays and cancellations of long-haul flights by Air India have been causing severe inconvenience to passengers.

According to Air India statement, "Flight AI103 from Delhi to Washington, DC on July 2 made a planned fuel stop in Vienna. During routine aircraft checks, an extended maintenance task was identified, which required rectification before the next flight and, thus, additional time for completion." The airline further said as Vienna to Washington leg was cancelled, alternative arrangements were made for the stranded passengers.

Passengers eligible for visafree entry or those with valid Schengen visas were provided hotel accommodations in

flight, as per the airline. For passengers without

Schengen visas, accommodation was arranged, in liaison with immigration and security clearances by Austrian authorities, while others were rebooked on alternative flights, Air India said in the statement.

India very close to sealing Tata Motors eyes interim trade deal with US PLI sops worth

"AUTHORITIES MAY AGREE to inbound shipments of some products used in animal feeds such as soyabean meal and distillers dried grains with solubles, a byproduct of corn-based ethanol production," the agency reported, quoting people familiar with the matter, who asked not be identified.

The US has imposed 50% additional duties on steel and aluminium and 25% on auto and auto parts. President Donald Trump has also indicated putting extra tariffs on pharmaceutical products. Apart from seeking exemption from these tariffs, India has sought assurances on any future tariff actions by the US, in lieu of the tariff concessions it has offered to that country.

Broadly, India's interest in the agreement is to seek greater access to the US market for its traditional employment-intensive exports and emerging sectors like electronics, battery and solar power products manufacturing. The sectors are broadly covered by the productionlinked incentive (PLI) scheme.

The high labour-intensity sectors contributed over $14.3 billion to India's exports to the

US in FY25. These include garments ($5.33 billion), textiles and carpets ($2.38 billion), made-ups and worn clothing ($2.95 billion), leather ($795 million), footwear ($461 million), ceramics and stoneware ($1.55 billion), and wood and paper articles ($823 million).

Medium labour-intensity exports—those combining skilled labour with capital amounted to $44.6 billion. These include electronics and telecom products ($15.9 billion), diamonds and jewellery ($9.97 billion), chemicals excluding pharmaceuticals ($5.37 billion), iron and steel goods ($3.7 billion), base metals ($1.88 billion), automobiles and parts ($2.59 billion), plastics and

rubber articles ($2.6 billion).

Under such a deal, India is expected to cut MFN tariffs specifically for the US on a wide range of industrial goods, including automobiles, for enhanced market access, which is a persistent demand from Washington. In agriculture, India may offer limited market access through tariff reductions and tariff-rate quotas (TRQs) on select US products such as ethanol, almonds, walnuts, apples, raisins, avocados, olive oil, spirits, and wine.

However, India is unlikely to budge on sensitive sectors. No tariff cuts are expected for dairy products or key foodgrain like rice and wheat, where farm livelihoods are at stake.

In FY25, trade between India and the US reached $186 billion as per commerce ministry data. India exported $86.5 billion in goods to the US while importing $45.3 billion, creating a goods trade surplus of $41 billion. In services, India exported an estimated $28.7 billion and imported $25.5 billion, adding a $3.2 billion surplus. Altogether, India ran a total trade surplus of about $44.4 billion with the US.

A 45 KWH VARIANT of the Tata Nexon EV received the PLI certification on June 27. The Curvy and Harrier are also in line for the benefits.

The Harrier EV, the most expensive electric vehicle by Tata Motors under the PV category and also with the biggest drive range, is expected to receive certification this year. In the next few months, Tata Motors will add the Sierra EV, a five-seater electric SUV, to the line-up. "In subsequent years, we should be able to take the PLI benefit to ₹2,000 crore in a year. So, ₹3,000-4,000 crore is what we should be able to do maximum over the next couple years for the PV segment," the executive added. Tata Motors' market share in the passenger EV space more than halved to 35% by the end of May 2025 from 81% clocked in FY23, according to data shared by the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association (FADA).

"In the mid- to long term,

we should come back to 50% share," Shailesh Chandra, MD, Tata Passenger Electric Mobility, said at the recently held annual Investor Day in Mumbai.

In the CV segment headed by executive director Girish Wagh, Tata Motors has three variants of the Ace mini truck and two variants each of Starbus and Ultra electric buses certified to receive benefits under the PLI scheme. Due to the PLI incentives, the CV division saw a positive impact of 20 basis points on Tata Motors' earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) margins, while on the PV side, the margins impact stood at 70 basis points, the company said.

First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

of jobs scheme with internship drive

THE HIRING FOR the second round is currently underway, the source said.

On Tuesday, the Union Cabinet approved ₹99,446-crore ELI scheme to support employment generation and improve employability across different sectors with a special focus on the manufacturing sector. First announced by finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman in her FY25 Budget speech, the ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period – August 2025 and July 2027. for PMIS to 700,000 intern-Out of these, 19.2 million beneficiaries will be first time comeagainst the backdrop of a employees.

Divided into two parts, the scheme offers a wage subsidy of up to one month's wage – subject to a maximum amount of ₹15,000 – to the EPFO-registered first-time employees earning below ₹1 lakh per month. In addition, the government will incentivise employers – up to ₹3,000 per month per employee – for each additional employee hired above a baseline.

CAREER BOOST

■ The Union Cabinet, on Tuesday, approved ₹99,446-cr ELI scheme to support employment

■ The ELI scheme aims to incentivise the creation of over 35 million jobs over a two-year period

In May, FE had reported that the government has considerably increased the target ships in FY26. The increase has series of tweaks being made in the scheme, including geotagging the opportunities so that the candidates can opt for companies and units closer to their domiciles.

Further, the top 500 participating companies under PMIS have been providing extra incentives —over and above the government-mandated monthly stipend of ₹5,000 to attract a higher number of interns.
